

MOUJTAHED

AMER

Information Technology Director

Syriatel Mobile Telecom

Tel: +963 11 334 1920-5

Fax: +963 11 334 1926

Education:

Amer Moujtahed earned his BSc in Electrical Engineering in 1992 and his Msc in Engineering Management from California State University, Long Beach in 1998. He gained his Project Management certificates from the Project Management Institute in 1993, and from the University of California Irvine in 1995.

Professional Experience:

Amer Moujtahed has eighteen years career experience in Engineering Management, Internet, Information Technology and Information Security as well as executive experience in most business functions including: Information Technology, Applications Development, Hosting Engineering, Local and Wide Area Networks, Systems Engineering, Business Development, and Project Management.

His career in Information Technology began in 1990. He has held director-level positions with Syriatel Mobile Telecom, Syria; Epoch Internet, California; and project management positions with the County of Orange, California. Amer Moujtahed returned to Syria in June 2002 after residing and working in the United States, California from 1986.

Memberships:

- Board member of the Syrian German Telecommunications Co. Ltd, Syria
- Professor at the Higher Institute for Business Administration, Syria